Knesset Member To Speak At Shabbat Service May 3

Ms. Ora Namir, member of the Knesset (Israel's Parliament), will be the guest speaker at Park Avenue Synagogue on Shabbat morning, May 3. Ms. Namir will address the issue: "Israeli Democracy — Can It Survive?"

MK Namir currently serves as Chair of the Knesset's Committee for Labor and Social Welfare. She is also the president of the International Center for Peace in the Middle East Jewish-Arab Council for Peace Education.

Born in Hadera, Israel, MK Namir served in the Israel Defense Forces during the War of Independence and began her political career as Mapai faction secretary in the Knesset. She held the post of Secretary-General of the Tel Aviv Working Mother's Organization and was a member of the Executive Secretariat of Pioneer Women.

She was first elected to the Knesset in 1973. She has served as the chair of the Committee for Education and Culture of the Knesset and was appointed by the then Prime Minister Yizhak Rabin to head the Committee for the Status of Women which presented its recommendations to the Prime Minister in 1978.

Festive Buffet Supper Precedes Annual Meeting of Congregation

The congregation will hold its 104th annual meeting on Thursday, May 15 at 7 p.m. Preceding the meeting will be a festive buffet supper at 6 p.m.

The annual meeting of the congregation is an event of importance in the life of the synagogue, for it is at the annual meeting that members of the congregation can become better acquainted with their synagogue and better informed on synagogue matters.

Rabbi Judah Nadich will install into office the newly elected officers of the congregation, the Board of Trustees and the officers of the constituent "arms" of the synagogue: Sisterhood, Men's Club, Women's Evening Group and Parents Association. Cantor David Lefkowitz will participate in a Memorial Service for those members of the congregation who died during the past year. The Annual Report to the Congregation will be delivered by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Martin J. Milston.

A vibrant synagogue community depends upon the interest of all its congregants in all

Seminary To Honor Rabbi Nadich At Dinner May 28

Rabbi Judah Nadich will be honored at the Jewish Theological Seminary Centennial Dinner on Wednesday, May 28 when the Seminary announces the establishment of the Rabbi Judah Nadich Chair in Talmud and presents him with the Seminary's Centennial Medal for Achievement on the 50th anniversary of his ordination. The Chair in Talmud is being established by the Seminary in the interest of perpetuating the study and teaching of Torah and the preservation and enrichment of the Jewish heritage.

The Centennial Medal for Achievement is presented by the Seminary to men and women, who, through their work and their lives, have set an example for others to follow. It recognizes commitment to the Seminary, to the Conservative Movement and to the values and traditions of the Jewish people.

Come Celebrate the Bat Mitzvah Of Our Adult Bat Mitzvah Class

An extraordinary event is about to take place at Park Avenue Synagogue. On Saturday morning, May 17, during Shabbat Services, eleven women will celebrate their Bat Mitzvah with the congregation.

Mazal Tov to Halona Balgley, Enid Fisher, Dorothy Kaufman, Sarah Levine, Judy Nadler, Naomi Neft, Belle Reiser, Vivien Ressler, Willa Rosenberg, Joan Schreiber and Carol Weber!

These eleven women have been studying, with Mrs. Vivian Finkel for the past three years in preparation for this day. They have studied the Hebrew language, holiday observance, the prayers and Jewish history in a course of study which has inspired them to seek the experience of Bat Mitzvah.

In addition to their weekly class with Mrs. Finkel many have pursued their studies in the evening classes of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies. This year, Rabbi Wechsler has delivered a special series of lectures to the class, joined as well by Rabbi Nadich and Cantor

Rabbi Judah Nadich
Guest of Honor at Seminary Dinner

Rabbi Nadich had served three congregations, Temple Beth David in Buffalo, N. Y., Anshe Emet Synagogue in Chicago, IL and Kehillath Israel in Brookline, MA before assuming the pulpit of the Park Avenue Synagogue in 1957. During World War II he enlisted as a chaplain in the U.S. Army and was on active duty for four years. His involvement in the Jewish community is great. He is a member of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee of the Seminary. He is Vice President of the Jewish Braille Institute and has been a member of its Board of Directors since 1957. He is past president of the Rabbinical Assembly, past president of the Association of Jewish Chaplains of the Armed Forces and past president of the Jewish Book Council of America.

He serves on the Board of Directors of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York, the National Jewish Welfare Board and its Executive Committee and the Seminary's Schocken Library and Research Institute in Jerusalem. He serves as a Special Advisor to the Chairman of the United States Holocaust Memorial Council and is a member of the New York City Holocaust Commission.

He is an author, his latest book being Jewish Seminary Dinner: (Continued on page 6, column 1)

Praying With Our Feet
And Our Wings

The late Professor Abraham Joshua Heschel marched in many freedom marches. Once, after coming back from Selma, Alabama, he remarked that he felt as if he had prayed with his feet.

You can pray with your feet: on Solidarity Sunday, May 11. This mass march for Soviet Jewry sends a clear message that the Jews of New York care for the Jews of the Soviet Union. Their destiny, their political and religious freedom, their ability to emigrate is our paramount concern.

And caring counts. When Anatoly Shcharansky looked for the inner resources to last the long years of his imprisonment, from where did he derive his strength? For the Book of Psalms and from the knowledge that Jews the world over cared for him. Our marching crossed continents and, as a prayer, it rose up and was heard by those who needed its encouragement. It was heard also in the Kremlin and in the White House so that Soviet Jewry would be on the Summit agenda. That is the power of prayer!

You can also pray with your wings. Recent terrorist incidents have frightened many people and have caused major changes in the summer travel plans of Americans. Thoughtful people that we are, we should take care when we make plans. Which is why we should not change any plans we had to fly to and vacation in Israel. Unless you want to change your tickets to El Al.

While Israel needs our tourism, we need constant contact with Israel even more. And, as a congregant said to me just before Passover, being in Israel is being Jewishly safe. May 14 is Israel Independence Day. What better way to pray than to decide to fly to Israel. That is a heavenly prayer.

Pray hard this month: with your feet and with your wings!

— Harlan J. Wechsler

Congregation Thanked By Joint Passover Association

The Joint Passover Association of the City of New York has written to thank Park Avenue Synagogue for its generous response to the mitzvah of Ma'ot Hitin.

In a letter to Rabbi Nadich, Ruth F. Kobrin, President of the association comments as follows:

"Thank you so much for your generous sharing in our mitzvah of Ma'ot Hitin. Your contribution will not only enable us to reach and help more people than last year, but also to raise our grant to them. You will brighten Passover for many and show our needy that there is still a community who listens to and cares for them. We thank you and so do they..."

Please turn to page 4 for a listing of our members and friends who responded to this appeal so generously.

Do You Want To Study Hebrew
This Summer?

The Ulpan Center, located at 515 Park Avenue, is sponsoring courses in Conversational Hebrew on all levels beginning June 9. Registration for these courses begins May 2.

There are courses given in beginners, intermediate and advanced Hebrew both during the day and in the evening.

For more information on schedules and fees, please call the Ulpan Center at 752-0600 or 888-0820.

Weekend Retreat Sponsored By JACS Foundation Inc.

A Jewish Retreat Weekend will be held May 16 — 18, 1986 in Woodburne, N. Y. for recovering alcoholics, chemically dependent persons and significant others sponsored by the JACS Foundation Inc.

This retreat brings together participants with varying degrees of Jewish background and helps explore new ways and existing resources within Judaism to assist and strengthen their continuing recovery. The emphasis is on informality and personal sharing.

For more information, please call 473-4747. The anonymity of participants is respected.

BECOME A MINYANAIRE

Cantor Lefkowitz To Appear In Two Videos On Cantorial Music

Two one hour videos on cantorial music will feature our Cantor David Lefkowitz as the featured soloist. The videos will be filmed this month.

In a video being produced by Stuart Hersh in cooperation with the Cantors Assembly and the New York Council of the Arts on the history and development of the American Cantorate, Cantor Lefkowitz together with our organist Neil Robinson and the Synagogue Choir will be shown and heard in excerpted sections of the synagogue service. Cantor Lefkowitz will be interviewed as well about his work in the cantorate.

The second video is being filmed for cable television. Cantor Doris Cohen will join Cantor Lefkowitz in singing liturgical music composed by the late Sholom Secunda who created much music for the Yiddish Theater. Cantor Cohen was the soprano soloist with Mr. Secunda at the Concord Hotel in Kiamasha, N. Y. She sang this music with the cantor at the Concord, the late Richard Tucker.

PAS Singles (30-50) Events During The Month of May

Park Avenue Synagogue Singles (30-50) invites its members and friends to join them in two distinctive events during the month of May.

On Friday evening, May 9, the Singles will hold their monthly Friday night Service in the Appleman Chapel at 8:30 p.m. Joining them will be Israeli journalist Judie Oron who will share her varied experiences as a journalist in a talk which she has entitled "Israeli Vignettes". An Oneg Shabbat follows the service.

On Sunday, May 18, the Singles are invited to a Bagel Brunch beginning at 12 Noon. Good food and good cheer will be combined with an informative talk by Elaine Goldhill, president of Elaine Goldhill Travel Consultants Ltd., on "The Single Traveler". $15 admission at the door.

Park Avenue Synagogue expresses its gratitude to Dr. and Mrs. Kalman Selig for their support of our Singles programs in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Bettina Paley To Entertain At Sisterhood Open Meeting

Singer, actress and entertainer Bettina Paley will deliver an original interpretation of the world of Yentl at the Open Meeting of Sisterhood on Tuesday, May 13 at 1 p.m.

Members and friends of Sisterhood are cordially invited to attend this meeting and also to enjoy the strawberry festival of refreshments which will be served.

Women's Evening Group Members To Enjoy A Pot Luck Supper

On Monday, May 5 beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Alice Fine, the Women's Evening Group is sponsoring a Pot Luck Supper for members only.

Featured at the supper will be an informal talk by a member of the Knesset Ora Namir.

Members of the Women's Evening group have received invitations to attend the Pot Luck Supper. If you would like to become a member of the Women's Evening Group and attend these for members only events, please send your check for the annual dues of $25 to Women's Evening Group, Park Avenue Synagogue, 50 East 87th Street, New York, N.Y. 10128.

Club 87 Coffee House The Place To Be!

More and more young men and women, age 21 — 31, know that the place to be on the second Wednesday of every month is the Club 87 Coffee House.

Club 87 will hold its next Coffee House on Wednesday, May 14 beginning at 7:15 p.m.

Admission is only $6. Tell that young person you know to come on over and "check it out". It is the place to be-without question!

High School Activities During May

In a show of solidarity with the Jews of the Soviet Union who wish to emigrate, the High School students and faculty along with the students of the Elementary School will join in the March on Solidarity Sunday, May 11. Students are urged to gather with us at Park Avenue Synagogue on that Sunday morning when we will leave for the March after classes.

* * * * *

A special program will be held on Wednesday, May 7 in commemoration of Yom Hashoa, Holocaust Day. Rabbi Nadich will speak. The following week, on Wednesday, May 14, Israel Independence Day will be marked by an afternoon of celebration with food and song.

Volunteers Sought For Elderly Outreach Program

Volunteer Services for the Elderly of Yorkville (VSEY) is a not-for-profit organization committed to helping any older person in the Yorkville area remain at home, comfortably and safely. This area between East 55th Street and East 96th Street is often thought of as an area of the young and wealthy. However, it has the highest concentration of older people of any urban district in the country.

Organized in 1978, VSEY was the result of a merger of four organizations, each providing a specific service to the elderly of Yorkville. The merger made comprehensive and coordinated services possible in a far more economical and efficient manner. All services are free and carried out by volunteers under the supervision of the executive director.

Volunteers are needed for Friendly Visiting; Tele-friend Calls; Escort Services, both medical and other; and the Weekend Meals program.

For more information, please call 744-0425.

Seminary Dinner

Legends of the Second Commonwealth.

This annual Seminary dinner has become a tradition at Park Avenue Synagogue.

The Guest Speaker of the evening will be Dr. Gerson D. Cohen, the Chancellor of the Seminary. Our congregation will remember Dr. Cohen as our Scholar-In-Residence at the Shabbaton two years ago.

Invitations to attend the dinner will be mailed to the congregation soon. Please respond quickly as space is limited. This will truly be a gala evening of celebration in honor of our Rabbi. Cocktails at 6:30 p.m.; dinner at 7:30 p.m. Black tie. A. Stanley Gluck is the chairman of a large and enthusiastic committee.

Adult Bat Mitzvah

Lefkowitz. By their regular attendance in class lasting friendships have developed along with an extended family concern for one another.

Some members of the class have become so inspired by the experience of learning the Haftarah cantillations that they are studying with Assistant Cantor Kula to learn the Torah cantillations as well.

This is the second time in the history of Park Avenue Synagogue that an adult class has become Bat Mitzvah. The first time was 12 years ago when Mrs. Finkel trained a class of 40 women, the first such class in the country. It was such an unusual event at that time that MS. Magazine wrote a story about it.

The congregation is invited to attend services on this day with these eleven women and celebrate with them and then join them and their families for a festive kiddush following the service.
